

FrontBurner®

A DAILY CONVERSATION ABOUT DALLAS

---

June 14, 2010

<http://frontburner.dmagazine.com/2010/06/14/what-to-do-in-dallas-tonight-june-14-2010/>

What To Do in Dallas Tonight: June 14, 2010

It's Monday. Don't get all bluesy on me. You can learn how to make sushi (while consuming plenty of sake) and see Erykah Badu tonight. See? Mondays rock after all.

The Sushi Sake Social at RA Sushi only happens twice a summer, so it's worth firing up the Tolltag for. Here's how it goes down: during the first hour, you get to drink a bunch of sake, and sample a few bites from the regular menu (think pork gyoza, beef teriyaki, grilled short ribs, and more). During the second hour, head chef Atusushi Koda (yes his real name) will give a demonstration on how to roll sushi. Guests will come up in groups and get one-on-one help from Koda as they attempt to make their very own California rolls. Don't forget to make a reservation (469-467-7400).